

Justin Trudeau

What the heck is going on here? The Cookie Monster. Best Breakfast Buddy. Mini World Cup MVP. If you ever need help with anything, Truds is your guy. The best Ross Boys prefect partner. What a struggle we had on dress down days! "It's all about trust!" "What? No! I cant, no way!" Truds' statements resonate

Corey Li

Although you are very shy, you still manage to pull the best personification of Mr. Nadeau in my time at BCS. Probably sleeping somewhere. P + W = S. Best spirit day presentation. "I'm sorry guys I broke my promise" Keep running from lobsters. The sweetest trumpet player you'll ever meet. Has anyone seen Corey? The guy with the beautiful voice. "Do we have a prefect meeting today?" Sweetest guy and best musician ever! "Wait what's a spirit day?"

Ben Chen-See

I wish I could be as calm as you are my friend. #dobetter. "Can someone take my duty?" The cool guy AND he's humbly smart (also check out his aesthetic insta). Habibi! "It's challenge day!" You know you've made it in life when Miss Vanier says you should pursue chemistry in Uni. "Ben, did you switch duties with me because you didn't want to miss the sleep in? Yep Do you want to switch back?"

Todd Johnston

You are one of those persons that even if you would try, you couldn't find a reason to hate them, you are one of the greatest person I had the chance to meet. I just reviewed that this morning, but I don't remember. "Give me a B! Give me an S! Oh" I don't know how to do this...Do you even lift bud? "Give that line to Todd; everyone will laugh". If Todd's 5'7 then so am I.

The first time I met this great guy his head was getting shaved. "Ohhhhhh, I wouldn't say that!!!!"

Doga Uras

You are more than just a basketball superstar you are a great friend that I will definitely miss next year. They never say my name right! "We live in a simulation." Honestly...what's not to love about her? #dogaisloveandlife. "hahahahaha" Is there anything she isn't good at? Best tutor in the entire world. She has the biggest heart and is the reason why I passed my Form V math. "Sorry if i wake you i have basketball tomorrow morning"
